Hello Coaches,

If you were lucky enough to join us for this past Monday's Summit Call with [COMPANY NAME]'s Head of Sales, Frank XXXXXX, you know it was filled with some great ways that coaches can close sales and help clients through premium service offerings.

Missed out on the call? We highly recommend that you go back and watch it - here is the link to that call!

[COMPANY NAME] has decided to offer sales training with Frank to all of our coaches to help build confidence in offering premium services and teach you essential sales tactics. He has asked for all coaches to take this survey to better understand where he can help you become a stellar seller of programs!
